

NAAE Lifetime Achievement Award Application

The NAAE Lifetime Achievement Award recognizes retired agricultural educators who have made significant contributions by providing visionary leadership, advocacy and service to our profession. These leaders have spent a career dedicated to students, our profession and growing our organization.

Who can apply?

All retired and retired life NAAE members, except current members of the NAAE board of directors, are eligible to apply. Each applicant must currently be a retired member and have been an active or active life member in the last ten years. Individuals may receive the regional award only once; previous regional winners are not eligible to apply.

Awards and Recognition

Each state winner will receive a sponsored certificate at the annual meeting of the state agricultural educator's association. NAAE will recognize six national winners, one from each NAAE region. All state winners will compete within their respective NAAE region for the regional award. Each regional winner will receive: (1) complimentary registration for the 2025 NAAE Convention in Nashville, Tennessee, and (2) an engraved plaque. Travel and hotel will be the responsibility of the award winner or nominating state association.

The deadline for submitting state winning applications to the national NAAE office is May 15, 2025.

All applications must be submitted through the NAAE Online Application system.
No printed or emailed applications will be accepted.
