

Task 1.1 Problem Cards

Your class needs to raise money to go on a field trip. How will your class select the fundraisers to raise the money?

Your school is planning activities for homecoming week. How will your school decide on which activities to have?

A parent gives their three children $35 to spend at the county fair. How can the children manage the money?

You want to have a birthday party. How will you select a theme and games for the party?

Your advisor gives you $40 to purchase snacks and beverages for an FFA meeting. How will you decide which snacks and beverages to purchase?

Your younger brother is preparing for a test. How can he prepare for the test?

Your class is going to watch a movie for a reward day. How will your class select the movie to watch?

Your family needs a plan to complete the daily chores. How should the chores be assigned?

You are planning a weekend camping trip with your friends. How will you decide what to bring?

Your family is planning a summer vacation. How should your family decide where to go?